NUMB. 298.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From SATURDAY Auguſt 25, to SATURDAY September 1, 1739.

Philadelphia, June 7.

AN Act of Aſſembly is lately paſs'd here, by which all the preſent Money is to be re-printed and re-emitted for 16 Years, with the additional Sum of 11,110 l. 5 s. half the Intereſt of which additional Sum will be ſufficient to diſcharge an Allowance made to the Proprietors as a Recompence for paying them the Quit-Rents in Paper Money inſtead of Silver: And the remaining Intereſt on the whole Sum to be current, being fully ſufficient to ſupport the Government without a Tax, no Man can poſſibly feel the leaſt Inconvenience by that Allowance. Add to this, that all Perſons renewing their Mortgages in the Loan-Office, or borrowing Money on this Act may do it without the uſual Fees for drawing the Mortgage, Recording, &c. which are to be paid out of the Intereſt Money, much to the Eaſe of poor People. And the Proprietors agreeing to take our Paper Money inſtead of Silver, for their Arrearages, &c. at 16 d. for 1 s. Sterling, the Credit of the Money is by this Expedient ſupported and preſerved, which is a Matter of the utmoſt Importance to the whole Province.

New-York, March 20.

We hear that the General Aſſembly of New-Jerſey are diſſolved. They have ſate about Five Months, and paſſed three Bills; have ſettled the Governor's Salary of 1000 l. per Annum, and 60 l. per Annum for his Houſe Rent, and a Preſent of Five Hundred Pounds for his good Services in going Home to England.

LONDON, March 27.

They write from Paris, that the Harmony, which has hitherto attended the French Councils, had ſuffered ſome Abatement. For not only the Enemies of the Adminiſtration, (for what Adminiſtration is there without Enemies) cry out upon ſo much good Time's being loſt, and the faireſt Opportunities being baulk'd of enlarging the Frontiers of the French Empire; but likewiſe the Count de Belliſle, and two other Marſhals of France, have pretty openly declar'd themſelves to be of the ſame Sentiments. The Cardinal Miniſter, who is a Perſon of great Mildneſs and entirely Maſter of his Paſſions, took occaſion to ſatisfy thoſe Military Gentlemen, by acquainting them, that the Advices he had juſt received from a certain Court, gave Ground to believe, that the publick Tranquility would be but too ſoon broken, and that they were very near having an Opportunity of diſplaying their Zeal for the Honour of the King and the Nation. The particular Court here meant by his Eminency is not certainly known whether that of Vienna or Manheim; but 'tis much beyond all Doubt, that the Coolneſs between the former and the Court of Verſailles encreaſes every Day.

They write from Vienna, that when the Emperor conferred the Command in Chief of the Army in Hungary upon Count Wallis, his Imperial Majeſty granted this General the ſame unlimitted Power of making ſuch Marches as he ſhould think convenient and giving Battle when he ſhould think fit, as was given to the late Prince Eugene. To prevent the Turks from taking Ships upon, upon the Danube and Sava, there have been caſt in different Places of theſe Rivers, Anchors with large Chains fix'd to them, which hold the Trunks of Trees full of Iron Spikes. Theſe Anchors are at ſo little Diſtance from each other, that the ſmalleſt Bark cannot paſs between them. Redoubts are likewiſe erected upon the Shore to hinder the Enemy from deſtroying theſe Works.

London, April 14.

The Right Honourable Sir Charles Wager hath attended Sir Robert Walpole for ſeveral Mornings paſt, at his Houſe in Downing Street, Weſtminſter.

The following is the Subſtance of the Articles of the Subſidy Treaty lately concluded between Great-Britain and Denmark.

All the Treaties of Alliance, Friendſhip and Guaranty formerly made between the high Contractors, and alſo the Conventions concerning Trade, are renew'd and confirm'd by this Treaty. His Daniſh Majeſty engages himſelf to keep, during three Years, 5000 Foot and 1000 Horſe in readineſs for the Service of Great-Britain, ſo that they may always be in a Condition to march within two Months after Notice given: But if Great-Britain's immediate Defence be the Buſineſs in Hand, thoſe Troops ſhall begin their March upon the firſt Summons they receive.

If his Daniſh Majeſty ſhould find himſelf obliged, at the ſame time to ſend Auxiliary Troops to any neighbouring Power or Powers, in Alliance with him, his Britannick Majeſty in Conſideration of the great Expences in keeping the Daniſh Troops, engages himſelf to pay Eighty Crowns for every Trooper, and Thirty for each Foot Soldier, of which one half is to be paid after the making a Convention on that Head, and the other half as ſoon as the Troops enter into the Service of Great-Britain.

His Britannick Majeſty likewiſe engages to pay three Years ſucceſſively the Sum of 250,000 Bank Crowns per Annum upon Condition that his Daniſh Majeſty will be contented with 150,000 Crowns a Year, from the Day on which the ſaid Troops enter into the Service and Pay of Great-Britain.

May 5. We hear that next Week ſixteen Sail of Men of War of the Line will be actually put in Commiſſion.

May 7. We are informed, that Sir Archer Crofts, Bart. will ſoon be appointed Governor of New-York.

Yeſterday Morning at Seven o'Clock the Rev. Mr. Whitefield preach'd to about 20,000 People in Moorfields; and in the Evening at Six o'Clock to about 50,000 on Kennington Common, where were about Eighty Coaches, &c. among whom were many Gentlemen and Perſons of Diſtinction; and to Morrow Evening at Six o'Clock he is to preach on Kennington Common again. He is daily preparing for his Voyage to Georgia.

Letters from Conſtantinople confirm the Diſgrace of the Grand Vizir, and that the Seraskier of Widdin was put in his Place.
